

Want to take part in the biggest event coming to our shores this Summer?

Well, You Can! The Open is golf's original and most international major championship and Northern Ireland is proud to host it between 14 and 21 July in the beautiful seaside town of Portrush.

This major event will be broadcast to 600 million households in over 190 countries, so all eyes will be on the Causeway Coast this Summer.

Volunteer Now are recruiting motivated and enthusiastic volunteers who can provide a warm welcome and bring an unrivalled visitor experience to this event making it truly unmissable.

If you like meeting people and showcasing Northern Ireland at its best, then why not join the team?

Volunteering at Events

There are many large and small events and festivals across Northern Ireland looking for volunteers. As an Event Volunteer you can see behind the scenes, get closer to the action and play a vital role in making the event possible.

Getting involved offers you:

- The choice of a diverse range of events
- Training and induction sessions
- Skills development
- The opportunity to make new friends
- Volunteer celebrations
- Lots of fun!

Over the last number of years Volunteer Now has been involved in the 2012 Olympic Games, Derry-Londonderry City of Culture, World Police and Fire Games, Giro D'Italia, Tall Ships, Gran Fondo, Irish Open Golf Championships and countless other key events that couldn't happen without the involvement of volunteers.
